

Ex-11 SETUP & configure LAN using a switch and Ethernet cables.

What is LAN?

A local area Network (LAN) connect devices within limited area such as home, school a office it allows devices to store data, printer and other resources through a network switch

How to setup a LAN

1) Plan network topology and arrange devices

2) connect 4 computer to switch using Ethernet cables

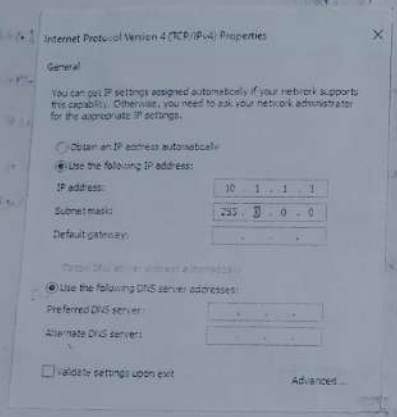

3) Assign IP address

4) configure switch with IP 10.1.1.5

5) Check connectivity using the ping command

6) Share a folders with computer on the LAN

7) Access the above folders from other computers.

Result :-

Thus the setup and configure a LAN using a switch and Ethernet cable as studied.